MEMORANDUM FOR: THE RECORD

STAT

SUBJECT: 'GAO Briefing on Greece

1. On Wednesday, 17 September at 2:00 p.m., Diane Glod, Frederick Barrett and Jane-Yu Ho Li from GAO were briefed on Greece: its economy and military capability to meet its NATO role. Agency briefers, from DI/EURA, were [redacted]

STAT

2. [redacted] began the briefing with a rundown on the current state of the Greek economy. The conversation then flowed into Greece's military capabilities. Diane Glod provided [redacted] the military analyst, with the attached questions and addressed those that he could. [redacted]

3. GAO asked to see two CIA publications listed at the top of the attached listing. I said I would see if they are available but we would not send them to GAO--they would have to come here to read them. They agreed to this. ([redacted]) [redacted] is getting the pubs ORCON approved for GAO review.)

STAT

4. The two hour briefing ended with our briefers providing GAO, at their request, Agency thoughts on whether it's safe to travel to Greece (in short the answer was, "As safe as it is to travel anywhere overseas today.").
